papers print long editorials on the elections. The Standard thinks it an exaggeration to describe the elections as a crushing blow to Roosevelt or an overwhelming disaster to the Republican party.

Roosevelt's failure, adds the Standard, lay in the belief that the party organization must instantly be re modeled and that he was the only per

The Daily Graphic, commenting on American elections, says:

"Insurgency clearly has gripped the country. The old party system is perilous."

The Chronicle says the result is a revolt against protection.

The Daily News says:

The Express says:
"Roosevelt encompassed his own failure. Intoxicated by the passion of his own convictions and overrating the influence of his personal authority, he wrecked his party by the indiscriminate violence of his campaign. The disaster was magnified by the follies of the Payne tariff, for which President Taft was largely to blame."

The Times says:

"Hard as is the blow for Roosevelt and Taft, we are far from believing that either the ex-president is down and out, or the word 'failure' must be written of Taft's administration. Mr.

BERLIN PRESS.

Berlin, Nov. 9.—Today's newspaper give much space to reports and editorial comment upon the American elections, which are viewed as very important. New lines of support are discussed, the probable effect upon Roosevelt's future political influence.

Some express the opinion that the "new nationalism" will not figure in party platforms for the present. Other comment adversely on Roosevelt's chances of securing the Republican presidential nomination in 1912.

PARIS PAPERS.

Paris, Nov. 9.—The French press gives prominence today to the American elections. The writers generally agree that the high cost of living was the fundamental cause of the Republican losses.

due partly to a split in the Republican party, for which Roosevelt was largely responsible, and in a measure to the vengeance of the political bosses and the trusts upon Roosevelt.

However, the paper adds that it is difficult to foresee the future, particularly whether Mr. Roosevelt's chances for the presidency have been blighted.

The Slede concludes that the Republican party is "in as hard a straits as Mr. Hearst was," and attributes its overblownness to the "monopolists of the river."

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS FOR MISBRANDING HAIR TONIC

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Mrs. Gervaise Graham was fined $50 and costs by Judge

Landis in the United States district court yesterday on a plea of guilty of having misbranded hair tonic. The label read:

Judge Landis asked for an explanation of "roots of hair on a bald head," but none was forthcoming. Asst. United States Dist. Atty. Hulburt, who prosecuted the case, told the court that an analysis of the product showed that it did not, and perhaps could not con-

MONTANA LEGISLATURE.
Helena, Mont., Nov. 10.—Latest return indicate that Montana's next legislature will be divided politically as follows:
Republicans, 23; Democrats, 19.
It is possible that the figures may be changed, but they are regarded as near correct. Completely to stand for, Senator Thomas H. Carter will be his own successor. If the Republican is re-elected, the other justice, who is a constitutional amendment raising to $600,000 the salary of the chief justice, are the only bills of measure, also provided.
